Dear fellow Men and Woman of our human race,

I am writing to you this letter, with attachments, as a matter of urgency in obedience to the calling of my Lord and Saviour Jesus. Quoting the name of the Lord hopefully makes you aware that I am a born-again believer holding to the truth of God's Word and the covenant in the Blood of Jesus.

This letter is not addressed to the believers in the Christian faith, but to all people from all walks of life and other religious affiliations, including, but not limited to agnostics and atheists. This message is directed to all races, genders, young and old. The reason I addressed you above as "our human race" is because very soon this may change, for creatures you may not be familiar with will invade this world and cause unparalleled horrors, destruction and death unseen since the world began. These creatures will manifest in three forms – aliens (but they are actually fallen angels), giants (Nephilims – demons manifesting in human-like bodies) and clones (transhuman hybrids without souls, possessed by demons).

You may wonder, if, or think that, I am an insane freak writing this letter to cause fear and disturb the peaceful lives of people. I do understand if you feel that way. I am simply sharing this information with you, for your benefit, so when the events described do occur, you will be able to share this information with the people that remain. This information will be very difficult to find then, due to the mass hysteria and deception that will follow these horrific events. The information that is included here is beyond the comprehension of human reason and logic thus I plead with you to read it and make your decision afterwards. Your choice will decide your future spiritual survival and eternal well-being. The knowledge of the events and horrors which are to come, is not my own, most of it is contained in the Bible, which highlights events Jesus shared with His followers, for your benefit. The Lord Jesus loves you very much and I believe He led me to write this so hopefully it can help you make the right choice not only to escape those horrors described here, but secure your eternal soul for the purpose for which you were created. Even now the world is fast becoming unbearable to live in due to the increase of natural disasters, economic hardships, violence, wars, abuse, intolerance, etc. Yet this will feel like paradise in comparison with what is to come.

It will all begin with an event that cannot be missed by anyone. The Bible calls that event the "rapture" which means "snatching-away" of the true believers that follow Jesus (upright Christians, not imposters). It will happen in a single moment when millions of people will vanish from the earth upward for all to notice. Those believers will be the true followers of Jesus who represent His Church, not a denomination. They will be removed from the earth for they are not ordained for judgment by the tribulation (wrath) to come. After the rapture-event there will be seven years left on earth before the physical appearance and return of Jesus Christ with His saints and angels as King of kings and Lord of lords.

You may be wondering, what can one do to escape these horrors? The good news is that between you reading this letter and the rapture-event, there is a small window of opportunity when you can seek the Lord, repent of your sins and become a devoted believer. One should not seek Jesus just for the sake of saving one's skin but because the good news of God's Love was revealed to mankind in sending Jesus to die on a cruel cross to save sinners. If you are serious about Jesus please look for the attachment letter below called "How to Receive Salvation from Jesus". If you need further help, please contact me. My contact details are at the end of this letter.

If you want to share all the information contained with others electronically, please send me an email request and I will reply with a PDF attachment containing all the information you have received.

Three Part Tribulation Summary

Post Rapture Letter from Jesus

How to Receive Jesus and Be Saved

Who can Jesus Protect in the Tribulation?

How to Recognise if You will be Raptured

Before I finish this personal letter I would like to give credit to Ezekiel and Clair du Bois who shared so much information on their website www.heartdwellers.org that helped me lay out this brief summary of information for your benefit. Some of the prophetic events like the strike on Temple Mount, the nuclear hit on Miami and New York and few others, and their arrangement sequence, were direct revelations from Jesus to Clair which she shares on her websites freely. After testing the many revelations given to Clair and Ezekiel against God's Word, and discerning the fruits of their ministry, I have no reason to believe they are false.

I sincerely hope and pray that you may choose life in the Lord and receive salvation rather than facing the horrors to come.

Three Part Tribulation Summary

Part 1 - Biblical Summary Outline of the Events After the Rapture

It is recorded in the Word of God (the Bible) that in the last days before the return of Jesus, there will be horrors and suffering on earth unequalled from the beginning of the world and never to be repeated again. It will be so bad that unless the sovereign God shortens those days (yes, the 24-hour day that you are used to, will change in the mid-point of the Tribulation) no person would survive. You can read that passage in the Bible in the Book of Matthew (The New Testament), chapter 24, verses 21 and 22.

The whole period (called Tribulation) will be seven years but the worst part of it will be the last 3 ½ years. The Bible speaks of that period in two places (Daniel 9:27; Jeremiah 30 :7). A week in prophetic language refers to seven years. I have provided a chart below that will visually show you the main events during the Tribulation. I'm giving here only a summary of the tribulation events, for this letter is not intended to be a bible-study guide of the Book of Revelation (our YouTube channel above provides a study).

In the mass confusion that will follow the rapture there will be two charismatic men to appear that will rise to power. One the Bible calls Antichrist, and the other is referred to as the False Prophet (read Revelation chapter 13). The first one will have supernatural satanic power that no man could match, nor any human would be able to kill. He will promise a solution to all the problems in the world and the UN and other international bodies will gladly give him their full support. He will begin his rise to power as a peace maker but in the middle of the seven years his true intentions will be revealed. He will declare himself as god and demand that everyone must worship him by taking his so called "mark of the beast" on their right-hand or forehead. He will cause mass delusion and possibly stage a "rising from the dead" event that will confirm his credentials as the "risen christ". To achieve that he will be helped by the False Prophet who will cause unusual miracles to happen, like fire coming from the sky. The False Prophet will be a religious figure who will represent the harlot (the false church of Revelations 17). The Antichrist will possibly claim that the rapture was a mass alien abduction of people or a similar lie, aiming to deceive the frightened multitudes of people on earth.

Parallel with the appearing of these two deceivers from Satan, God will send His two witnesses (Revelation chapter 11, verse 3-13) to counter the deceptions of the first two. They will prophecy for 3 ½ years the truth of God in order to help people not to fall for the lies of Antichrist and the False Prophet. They will urge the multitude to repent and save their souls. The two prophets of God will have God's supernatural power to resist any attempts on their lives. At the end of their ministry they will be killed by the Antichrist, but they will rise again 3 ½ days later in full view of a worldwide audience (Rev11:7-14).

World War 3 will start with the invasion of Israel by Russian, Turkish, Iranian and possibly Sudanese troops. Because of the catastrophic events taking place on earth, and the massive delusion caused by the Antichrist, the Lord will begin His judgments upon the earth (7 seals, 7 trumpets, 7 plagues). The Lord will defend Israel and destroy supernaturally the invading armies of Russia and their allied nations.

Those who repent in those days and don't take the mark of the beast will receive salvation from Jesus (Revelation 7:9-17). Unfortunately, many will be killed by Antichrist for not taking the mark while others may die from starvation, torture, or be imprisoned (Revelation 13:10). There will be pockets of believers in hiding during these days while the remnant of Israel that will repent will be led by God in a hiding place (Revelation 12:6).

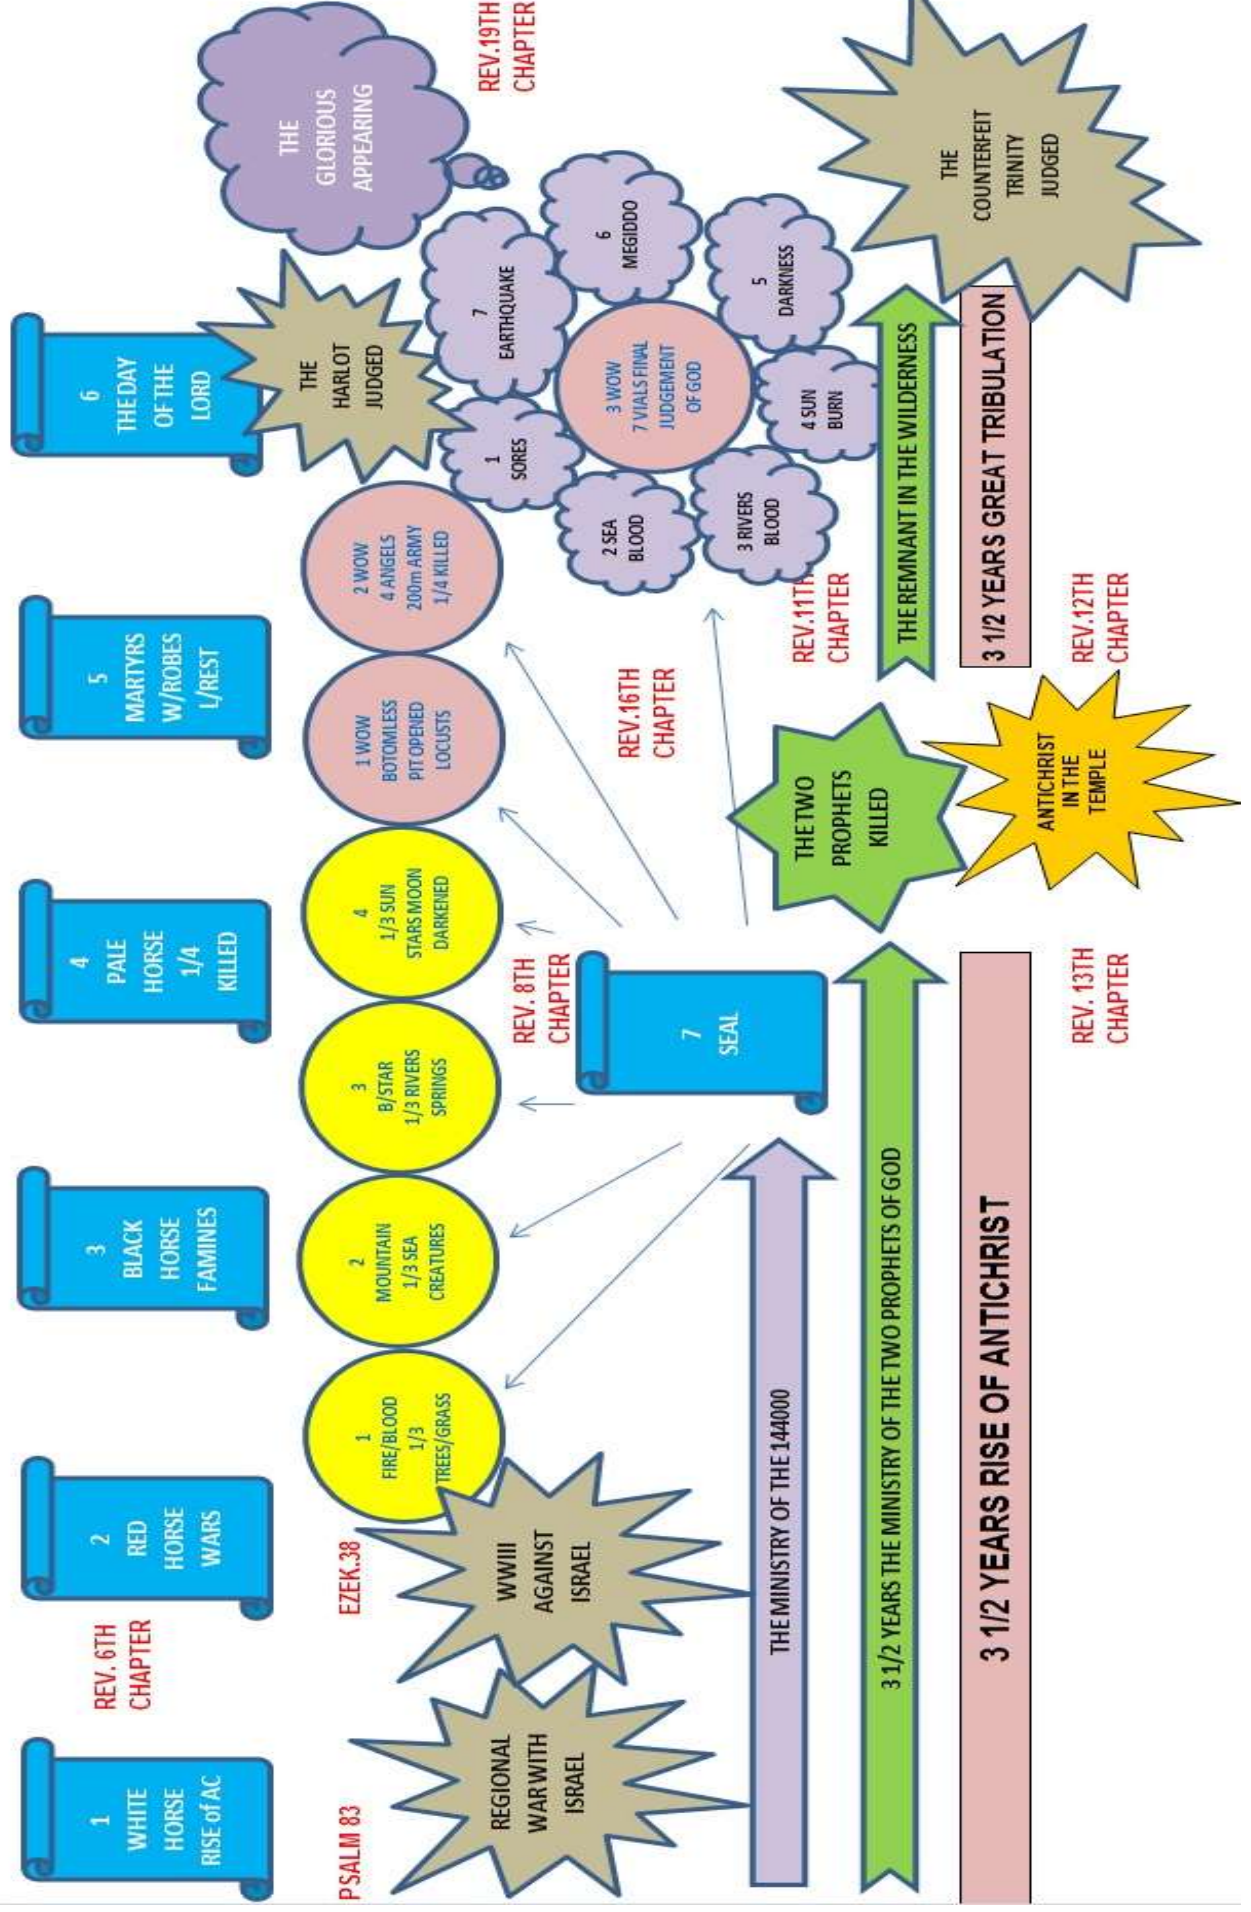

Most people on earth will worship the beast (Antichrist - Revelation 13:8) and take his mark (Revelation 13:15, 16). At the end of the seven years Tribulation the nations will gather in Israel to make war against Jesus in an area famously called Armageddon (the valley of Megiddo), not far from Jerusalem. Jesus will destroy the armies of the Antichrist, restore the earth and lead the remnants of His people into the Millennium reign of 1000 years (Revelation 19:11-21).

Before Jesus appear on earth there will be a clear sign – the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not shine (Matthew 24:29). This will take place 3.5 years after Antichrist declares himself as god in the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem. Those who have refused the mark of Antichrist and died for Jesus will be resurrected to return with Christ.

Israel will be allowed to rebuild their Jewish Temple according to an international agreement that will be signed after the rapture. The rebuilding will be quick and efficient (probably less than six months) for the Israelis already have all things prepared for its reconstruction (refer to Jerusalem Temple Institute). The notorious peace-agreement between Palestine and Israel will probably not be signed until the rapture takes place and Antichrist appears (Daniel 9:27).

The False Church (as in Revelation chapter 17) will lead the whole world into apostasy in order to subject everyone under the authority of Antichrist. It will claim the authority of Christ but without any scriptural or moral backing. Because the people of the world will be worldly minded, most will fall for the deception to follow led by Antichrist and the False Prophet as their leaders. This period will not go on indefinitely. After mid-point of the Tribulation the days and nights will be shortened by $\frac{1}{3}$, from 24 to 16 hours a day. (Rev 8 : 12). The 2nd portion of 3½ years will be shorter than normal.

SUMMARY OF REVELATION

Part 2 - Revelations about other Events during the 7 Year Tribulation

Immediately after the mass disappearance of believers from earth, there will be a massive shock for those left behind for three reasons: the shock of families being separated from other family members who were believers (that includes children); the events taking place simultaneously with the rapture, like the Russian invasion of Israel (WW3 beginning), Miami and New York being bombed with nuclear weapons, joint invasion of USA by Russian and North Korean troops, as well as an asteroid strike next to Puerto Rico that will cause a Tsunami that will wipe out the whole of the east coast of USA, leading to nearly 60 – 80 million deaths on impact. Fear will descend upon the people in the aftershock of these events.

In the midst of all the confusion, fear and outcry from people around the globe martial-law will be instated in the USA. Former President Barak Obama, with the support of the UN, will lead the US and the world to a peace arrangement. The martial-law will be under strict regulations (similar to Islamic Sharia-Law rules). Anyone trying to oppose the new world order will be judged under those principles. Foreign troops will be in charge in many former US states. USA will not be the world power anymore because of the devastation brought about by the nuclear bombings, the tsunami devastation and the aftermath problems the country will experience.

The asteroid strike near Puerto Rico will cause the earth to get off its axis and wobble. This will lead to a poll-shift that will change the climate with even more devastating consequences.

Immediately after the rapture there will be a massive world-wide revival. Many of those Christians that were lukewarm and missed the rapture will repent and the Lord will forgive them. They will preach the good news to many and the result will be a massive worldwide revival. The tribulation saints (those who repent and turn to Jesus after the rapture) will perform extraordinary miracles.

The martial-law will not favour true believers and they will be hunted down. To achieve that the new world-order regime will release clones (transhuman-creatures with no souls) in various remote places around the world to hunt people down. The Lord will give the believers at that time supernatural power to resist those evil creatures but that will only be possible if the believers stay together and put their complete trust in the Lord. Those who are preppers (lone-rangers who trust their survival skills) will be wiped out first for those clones could not be killed with conventional weapons. The clones will be supernaturally possessed by demons who will guide them to search and kill all survivors who resist the martial-law and refuse to go to FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) in the US and similar concentration camps worldwide. Yes, there will be concentration camps as it usually happens in every martial-law situation.

The survival of all believers will depend on their trust in Jesus. Prayer will be their most powerful weapon. They will need to pray and ask the Lord for guidance in every decision. The new authorities will send infiltrators to look for believers by letting them pose themselves as believers. Under no circumstances are the believers to accept people without prayers first and then the casting of lots. In that way the Lord will show them who are the infiltrators and who are the genuine converts. Jesus will assign a leader for each group of believers to lead them with the Lord's wisdom. The Lord will provide food supernaturally for those who obey Him. They would not need to worry about their provision.

During the tribulation many more earthquakes and volcanoes will erupt around the world and streams of lava will flow in diverse places. The intensity will increase at the end of the tribulation when Planet X (Nibiru) makes its closest approach. Once Nibiru is visible from earth there will be no escape for most of the people alive at that time. Islands, continents and land masses will start shifting with an earthquake unequalled from the past (Revelation 6:12-14; 16:17-21). Just before that event there will be complete darkness over the earth during the day (Revelation 16:10). Those events will be just before the sign of Christ's return.

The Antichrist will declare himself as God at the mid-point of the Tribulation (7 years) by entering the newly rebuilt Jewish Temple in the most holy place area (2 Thessalonians 2:4). Then he will command his mark (mark of the beast) to be put on everyone and be worshipped as god. Those who refuse will be killed. He will promise those who take the mark to live forever without sickness. The actual truth is that once the mark is received the chemicals contained in it will cause a change in the DNA of the person to transform it into a DNA of a Nephilim (giant). This will cause a disembodied demon with a specific DNA to merge with the DNA of the person taking the mark. The individuals accepting the mark will no longer be the same for their souls will be fully possessed by demons. For the reason of DNA change, those who accept the mark could never be saved again (Revelation 14:9-11). The demons that will indwell the people accepting the mark are the spirits of giants that the Lord destroyed in the Flood who had specific genes (Genesis 6). They became disembodied spirits (who seek to indwell people for they had human-like bodies before the flood) when they drowned in the Flood. The survivors will be under severe pressure to take the mark of Antichrist for they will not be able to buy or sell in the new world-order society without it (Revelation 13:16, 17).

When the Antichrist declares himself as God in the Temple there will be a place somewhere in the world that will open the gate to the underworld (hell) and enable creatures from hell to ascend upon the earth (Revelation 9:1-11). That will cause unimaginable horrors upon the earth. CERN (Scientific Research Facility in Switzerland) will have something to do with it. It will be so bad that people will prefer to die rather than live (Rev 9:6). That will not be possible for those who took the mark, for their souls would be completely possessed. Truly those days will be unbearable!

To hide from the devastation to come by Planet X, the elite (leaders of the world) will hide in underground bases in USA, Europe and Asia. They have been preparing those facilities for the past twenty years or more, knowing fully well of the Nibiru (Planet X) approach detected long ago. The reason NASA is denying its existence is, to protect the elite's plan of survival, as well as avoiding the panic and fear that it may cause to people. Those underground bases will become the elite's burial places when the Lord opens the underground springs of water and lava to destroy them in their self-preserved tombs. Do not go into underground bases. Jesus will protect the believers that survive the devastation of those days.

During the rise of Antichrist, the Vatican Pope will come forward to unite all religions under the umbrella of the Catholic Church. Most mainline denominations and sects will join (Eastern-Orthodox, Russian Orthodox, Pentecostal, Lutheran, Charismatic, etc.) including Muslim and Jewish sects. The Pope will exercise control of Temple Mount and declare it as a place of worship for the three monotheistic religions – Christianity, Islam and Judaism. That will be part of the great apostacy that will lead people astray. The Pope will be the False Prophet of Revelation 13:11-18. Do not fall for that great deception for that will be the false Church of Revelation chapter 17.

Fallen angels will also appear after the rapture in the form of aliens coming with space ships of superior technology. They will encourage people to follow Antichrist and take his mark. They will show their real identity once people fall in their deception.

The world meanwhile will be at war in the middle east, Europe, USA and Asia south. Southern Africa will probably be the safest place to be. Russia, Germany, France, England, China, Turkey, and Iran will be the main players in World War 3 but many other nations will take sides too.

Communication facilities and the electrical grid will be knocked out after the rapture. It will take time to restore power and communications. Radio and internet will function again though not as smooth. Due to the ongoing natural and supernatural disasters there will be frequent prolonged disruptions, especially in the underdeveloped nations.

Former President Obama will lead an international peace treaty that includes Israel and Palestine. The leaders of the world will agree on the peace plan for the Vatican will be driving the treaty behind the scenes to enable the Catholic Church to take control of Temple Mount. In that treaty the Jews will be allowed to rebuild the Third Temple and resume the animal sacrificial system.

There will be an economic collapse which will replace the dollar as the reserve currency of the world. Crypto-currency will be established to lead the world towards the cashless system of the beast – one step short of the mark-system.

Part 3 – Revelations from the Lord about events Leading to the Rapture

The rapture is close at hand. The events that will lead to the rapture will follow in succession. Watch Israel, for Temple Mount is the key to unlocking the events leading to the rapture.

As Iran is busy building bases in Syria and Israel is resisting with conventional strikes, Russia has already put some troops and bases on the northern border of Israel. The turn-key event that unlocks the succession of events will be when Iran strikes the Dome of the Rock. Israel will respond with obliterating Syria's capital Damascus in fulfilment of Isaiah 17:1 prophecy. Russia then will start invasion of Israel from the north and will use submarines for strikes from the Mediterranean Sea. Before USA can respond in defence of Israel, Russia will strike Miami and New York with nuclear missiles. At the same time Miami is nuked, an asteroid will glaze the earth by striking close to Puerto Rico. The rapture will take place at the same time. From the strike on the Dome of the Rock by Iran to Miami being nuked and the asteroid strike, it will be about a week.

That week between the Dome of the Rock strike and the asteroid hit will be the last opportunity for unrepentant believers and unbelievers alike to seek Jesus for salvation. Those who are genuine and earnest in their appeal to God will be saved and raptured. This will be the last opportunity for lukewarm believers to clean their hearts and seek God's forgiveness, so they could be taken with the rest who are ready.

Please, please, please! Do not miss that last opportunity. Once the strike of the Dome of the Rock happens, wherever you are, fall on your knees and seek forgiveness from the Lord in sincere repentance. The world will be in turmoil because of the succession of disasters, fear will prevail, and no one will be thinking about the rapture. Do not waste time – pray, repent, confess your sins, and plead before God for mercy upon your soul and your loved ones. As I outlined in part two, what follows is beyond belief.

Dear precious souls, I plead for your lives and pray that you would turn to the Lord and receive the peace that surpasses all understanding. Jesus loves you so much that He laid His life for you. As I am about to finish this letter, I pray that you will consider the information here prayerfully and seek the Lord Jesus and His forgiveness. It may be the last chance for some of you. For guidance on how to receive Jesus, please refer to the relevant section further below.

May God grant you mercy unto repentance, so you may receive Jesus as Lord.

Post Rapture Letter from God

October 7, 2014

"I am calling out to you, speaking comfort to your heart. I've not left you, nor will I ever leave or forsake you. I know acutely the terrible loss you feel, at times even a sense of betrayal overtakes you. All your questions of "Why, and where, and why am I still here, why I was left behind and what am I ever to do now?"

"You must resist the temptations to simply dive back into the world and get really busy and take advantage now of many so-called new and exciting opportunities and careers due to the mass vacancies in every aspect of industry, business, and all-around money ventures."

"NO, even in your pain and bewilderment, draw back from these things. Pull back away from your unstable world and seek Me with all your heart ten times the more. Strongly call out to Me with true repentance and a sincere change of heart and I will help you. I will calm your fears and welcome you back with open arms."

"You're not lost. In the coming days you will see more and more just how much I still truly love you. If a mother forsakes her child, I will not abandon you. I am forever here to save you."

"You are still My child, so very, very precious and cherished by Me. You are still My treasure, and I am with you even now. The question burning in your mind, 'But why? Oh, my Lord, why? Why, why was I left behind?'"

"My child, you were never meant to be excluded from the Rapture. It was My merciful provision for all My children, indeed My Church, My body, My Bride. You were to be part of the evacuation that took place to keep you from having to live in and witness the most horrible time of suffering upon the Earth that has ever been or ever will be. "

"You began well, however, in time you began to become more and more entrenched in the world. Though still a Christian in name and affiliation, you began to draw more and more away, often to many distractions and pastimes."

"The times we used to share became less and less. You knew that you were beginning to compromise more and more with the world over your faith and so you stopped speaking to Me."

"That combined with your new relationships and your new liberal ways of thinking caused you to begin looking at other souls around you and judging them. You began to look down on them and the things that they held dear, even going as far as holding in scorn and contempt the joy that they expressed at the nearness of My coming."

"By the time I arrived all you could do was stand in fear and shame for the very thing which you disdained to believe had just happened right in front of you. Because you did not believe, you did not watch and pray, and I came as a thief in the night and you were not prepared”.

"I could not take you. You ask of Me, 'What now?'"

"Stay close, stay ever so close to Me now. Pray for the grace to always have Me in your heart and mind, My name ever on your tongue”.

"You must hold tightly to the hem of My garment and never for a second let Me go again. Develop the habit of thanking Me always and everywhere. Have me ever before your mind's eye. This you must pray for also and I will give it. I am with you already, as it is, but you need to be able to sense Me, feel Me, and interact with Me, speaking to Me always as your most trusted friend.”

“I am keenly interested in your every thought and feeling so long as you strive to stay lowly and humble, being very little in your own eyes. I will forever be your most trusted Friend and confidant. Nothing draws Me more closely than very small and childlike souls. I stay closer to them than their own skin, and I will be with you”.

"I know that you are still in a great state of bewilderment and the rest of the world around you is in a terrible state of disarray. But I also know that already you're beginning to feel an inexplicable, supernatural peace and calm within. I will continue to give you this gift and you will be able to think and reason with remarkable clarity.”

"Do not worry about your needs. As you can see, I have provided for you in every way. People will continue to give to you everything that you will need, seemingly out of the blue, and you will quickly begin to experience just how truly beautiful a real life of faith is even during these most extraordinary circumstances.”

"Nothing is out of My control and nothing is allowed without My consent. I have made every provision for you ahead of time. You have no need to be anxious at all, only keep your heart and eyes on Me. You are my precious, precious child and I will not allow anything or anyone to harm you. I have set my angels all about you to watch over you day and night. Not only will you be provided for, but you will know My loving care and the surety of My faithfulness as I bring an overabundance for you to help others with.”

"You will begin to meet others who, like you, have repented as well, and through their own brokenness have been fully restored in profound humility and whose hearts are solely for Me and the Kingdom of God alone.”

"I will gather again My people as a mother her little children and I will bring them through this time of trial and testing victorious. They will shine like the stars in the firmament of heaven, twice refined. They will rule and reign with Me as they have persevered and come through gloriously, the Time of Tribulation.”

How to Receive Jesus and Be Saved

Dear precious person,

Are you happy with your life? If you are, is that the purpose of life? Is it only about what you see, experience and feel that matter, or is there more? How about if you are one of many that are not happy with their lives and carry the burden of poverty, hardships, suffering, affliction, pain, sickness, abuse, etc. Isn't life more than what seems right from the world's point of view? Is it only about survival, accomplishments, personal legacy, wealth and inheritance for your children, etc?

I believe life is about Love. And here I don't mean human love, for if that was the standard there would be no divorces, unhappy children, etc. I mean Love that is only possible to find from a source outside of our human and limited perspective based on science, philosophy and psychological inputs within, such as what we think, what we want, what we feel, etc.

True Love I believe, is only found in a source that is outside of that cycle of human reasoning. Science can quantify many elements of our physical and psychological beings, but can it quantify or measure the value of love, or that of a human-soul? When a person dies, we know what happens to the body, but can science really explain what happens to the soul, the personality and all that was there besides the physical part of the person? That is the part I want to tell you about. Isn't it interesting that while we strive to attain goals in life based on logic and reason, we are most satisfied from something that is not tangible, like being loved, appreciated and accepted?

Even basic human logic reveals that supposedly, the scientific explanation of the Big-Bang theory for the origin of life, is so deeply flawed and short-sighted that it can hardly explain anything other than minor mutations in animal life. Most of the elite scientists the world had ever known like Einstein and Newton, who were the founders of modern science, understood that evolution could not explain the origin of life. They understood that the cosmos, the planetary system, the earth, and the world was based on "intelligent design" that had no origin in human thought or reason. They believed in the existence of God even while being on the forefront of human scientific reason.

I want to tell you that God is a person too. His name is Jesus. He showed mankind the ultimate purpose of life exhibited in His life on earth two-thousand years ago. That purpose was and still is Love. Jesus was and still is the manifestation of God in a human body, but He is also the manifestation of God's Love towards mankind. You may ask at this point, if God is real, and He is Love, how come all the horrible things in this world are happening continuously? Simply put, they happen because our ancestor Adam had a free choice. He was the first perfect man created by God, lived in a perfect place and had a free choice to either receive eternal spiritual life, or lower natural and mortal sinful life. Unfortunately, he had made the choice for which we bear the consequences ever since. Every human being born in this world inherits the fallen nature of sin and death because of Adam. Because of that, we can never reach God's standard of perfection revealed to us in His laws – the ten commandments. No human being could ever keep even one ("thou shall not lie"), let alone the rest. You may ask, but why should I pay for Adam's wrong choice? The good news is that you don't have to do so! God made a provision for you in His Son – Jesus Christ.

According to the same perfect law of God the punishment for sin is death. When Jesus came to earth two-thousand years ago He came not only to teach mankind the way of Love and Peace in God, but most importantly, He chose to willingly take the punishment that Adam's disobedience fully deserved – death. By dying on the Cross for mankind Jesus satisfied the requirements of the Law of God against sin, for He was the only Man in human form that could obey the Law of God fully. Christ died willingly, by His free choice, because He loves you. He gives you the same free choice today. The choice is the following: Are you willing to accept Jesus' pardon for your sins and receive His eternal life; or are you willing to remain in your sinful life and be judged according to God's Law for your many sins with eternal death? It is up to you.

If you are willing to choose Jesus' way, you'll need to confess and repent for your sins by asking Jesus to forgive you, forgive all those who wronged you in your life, and hand over to Jesus your life. In exchange He will give you His Life. If you choose Jesus you should no longer have claim on your own life, and from then on you would have to live by His guidance. He will enable you to do that by sending the Holy Spirit to live in your new-formed spirit and teach you the new-way of life by God's Word - the Bible. Your new relationship with Jesus will flourish as long as you choose to be obedient to the voice of God inside you (the Holy Spirit) in line with your commitment at conversion. To choose Jesus means to become a new-born person.

Still wondering if you should choose Jesus? Jesus is not a religion, He is a person. Religion (all-inclusive except bible-based Christianity) teaches a set of rules, regulations and rituals to help you reach god, and hopefully find forgiveness. Choosing Jesus however, let you receive the Life of God immediately not because you follow rules, regulations and rituals, but because of faith in God Himself who loved you to the point of death by taking your punishment upon Himself. That is Love, my friend, that is not of this world. Jesus is God's Love revealed to mankind in a Person. From all the religions of the world only one belief-system has a Saviour, and that is bible-based Christianity. The true God that made the heavens, the earth and all that you see around us, is a Trinity – Father, Son and the Holy Spirit. The Son Jesus Christ willingly came to earth to live as a human to redeem mankind. That is because of Love, for God is Love (1John 4:16).

You may have noticed that I made many statements above without any reference to scriptures in the bible except one. The reason for that is to avoid bible-bashing. Rather, I want you to know that Jesus loves you dearly. He has a plan for you, but He cannot reveal it to you unless you choose to let go of your own life. Once again, the choice is yours.

Are you ready to make your choice? Do you have more questions? Please contact me. I will gladly answer any questions you may have. I will suggest something. Why don't you simply pray the following? God, if you do exist as this man wrote in this letter, please reveal to me the truth? If you are sincere you may be surprised of what may follow.

From the bottom of my heart I pray and ask God to have mercy upon your soul. May He draw you to Jesus just like He did with me, not because I was good, but because He loves me despite my countless failures and shortcomings. Yes, He loves you as deep as that and even more than anyone can imagine. Why wait? What do you have to lose – your status, friends, wealth, luck, spouse, partner, etc? IS IT ALL WORTH MORE THAN YOUR SOUL ETERNALLY?

If, however you have made your decision and want Jesus, why delay? Get on your knees and pray a simple prayer like this:

Lord Jesus, I have decided to give my life to you. Please forgive my sins as I choose to forgive those who wronged me. Cleanse me by your precious Blood and grant me to receive your new Life. Let Your Spirit live in me for Your glory. And now Lord, teach me the new-path of Truth and Love. I believe You are the Son of God and there is no other redeemer. To You Jesus be the glory, honour and praise forever. Amen.

Congratulations my new friend in Christ. You have made the most important decision of your life. Your eternal destination has changed – from eternal damnation to eternal salvation. Now, pray and ask God to let you meet true believers in Jesus and start enjoying your new-faith together. Are you unsure if you should join a Church? Which one? Those are secondary issues. You need to get a good-translation Bible like King-James Version or New-International Version and start reading it daily. You have a lot to catch up. Start with the New Testament reading and then read the Old Testament. If you read three chapters a day (25 minutes) in one year you should finish the whole Bible. When you do, don't stop, each new reading will bring new revelations from the Holy Spirit. For bible lessons please join a small bible-study group and ask the leader to help you. With every daily reading ask the Holy Spirit to teach you and help you practice what you have studied. That is the only right approach for spiritual growth.

Good bye my new friend, there are so many things I would love to share with you. You are welcome to contact me and let me know how you are doing.

Bless you. Jesus, have mercy on my new-born friend. May it bring You glory.

Jesus Speaks on Who He Can Protect

March 6th, 2015

"Humility, self-control, honesty, and charity are absolutely essential if you want Me to walk with you. If you are used to leading and getting your own way, you won't do very well as a leader. If you are unsure of yourself and know that you need Me more than ever, you will excel as a leader."

"My children, the ways of the world that you have learned are totally inappropriate here. I protect those who humble themselves before Me. If you are prancing around proudly with all the answers, you are bound for destruction. I am counting on your breaking when you realize all you've been taught by friends and family has just come to pass before your very eyes. I am counting on you face flat on the floor begging forgiveness for your pride and arrogance. I am laying the groundwork for you to survive the trials that are now at your door, both body and soul."

"If you humble yourself before Me, I will most certainly be with you. Even if you are in a long-standing habit of pride and arrogance and are aware of your sin and want to be delivered, I will work with you. But if you insist on your own wisdom, I can do little for you."

"It's of the utmost importance that you put others before yourself. When I came into the world, I did not lord it over others. No, I bent the knee and humbled Myself, washing the feet of My disciples. The lowliest job in the house left for the lowliest servant. That is what a leader does - he, or she, looks after the interests of others."

"Some of you have come from very humble families and have seen what I am talking about. Others will have a struggle because they have not had good examples. Don't let that discourage you. I am dedicated to you and your make-over. I will not abandon you to your arrogance; rather I will instruct and lead you as you come to Me sincerely, wanting to change."

"Much, even in your survival and the survival of your loved ones, will depend on your total reliance on Me and My ways. I will always, always provide a way out for those who have humbled themselves and relied totally on Me."

"Though the mountains shake and the seas roar, I will be with you and never abandon you. You will know them by their love and humility. You will recognize those who are sincere by whether they are authentically humble. Anger, back biting, strife, insisting on your ways, those are the ticket to defeat. That is NOT humble behaviour."

"Above all, preserve your souls by giving your life to Me. The very first step in the ladder of humility that leads to Heaven is recognizing you have failed with your life. You have sinned, you have hurt others, made foolish and immature decisions, and neglected those you owed respect and support to. And those who you should have listened to, you discounted, especially your elders."

"So, having made a mess out of your life, you need to give it to Me, unconditionally. 'Lord I have sinned, and sinned, and sinned. I am not worthy of You, but I beg your forgiveness. I repent of the selfish and arrogant life I have led, forgive me. Wash me clean with Your Blood, deliver me from the evil within. I want to be born again: fresh, new, and in Your Image. I give You my life, unconditionally. Receive me, lead me, save me.'"

"Along with that pray the Our Father I have taught and expect Me to make immediate adjustments to your character."

Our Father, Who is in Heaven, Holy is Your Name; Your Kingdom come, Your will be done, on Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us; and lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. Amen.

"Learn of Me, for I am meek and humble of heart. I have left you innumerable love letters - read them, believe them, allow them to take root in your heart. There is no joy that is compared to knowing and loving Me. This knowledge of Me and My love for you, unworthy as you are, will sustain you through every trial. No matter what you go through, I will be there on your right, holding your hand, speaking to you, comforting you. Nothing can separate you from My Love. "NOTHING".

"Not anything on the Earth or above the Earth, not aliens, not death, not even when you fall - still I am by your side to pick you back up. Nothing can separate you from My Love."

"So, don't be afraid when you fail. Expect that you are going to make mistakes along the way, expect that you will fail, and know that I will lift you back up again. Do not run when you fail, turn to Me. Do not run away, rather run to Me. I will take you into My arms in a full embrace and wipe away your tears. I do not condemn you, I am not a man that I should judge you. No, I love you. I know before you even fail that you will fail, and I already have a provision to raise you back up."

"Know, understand in full knowledge, that I never, ever will forsake you. Even when you cannot feel Me, I am there supporting you, ready to come to your aid, to forgive and restore. With this knowledge, I want you to go forward now in total reliance on Me. From this day forth, your life is not your own - it is Mine to cherish, guide and bring to glory with Me in Heaven."

"Fear nothing, for I am with you always. And where I am, you too shall be, for I have gone ahead of you to prepare a place for you. A place uniquely your own, where we will be together forever. I am not a man that I should love you as a man.

"I am your God, and never will you find the limit to My Love for you, because there is none. I am eternally yours and you are now eternally Mine."

Jesus Speaks on How to Recognise if You will be Raptured

April 11th, 2015

Clair speaks: "Oh Lord, tell me what you have for Your brides tonight?"

"I love them with a love beyond imagining. So many are worried about their status with Me, as if I were a legalist with court documents listing every offense. No, that is Satan's description. I am more like the lover reading every action of their day with great interest, as a love poem to Me. Everything they do out of pure love for Me and their brother, this is my consolation. Even on the Cross, these marks of affection comforted Me as I looked into the future and saw how much they would love Me.

"And so, I have accumulated these gifts, these marks of love and ponder them several times a day. Yes, like the petals of dried roses, I contemplate their meaning for Me and I rejoice that I have such as these willing to give for Me, willing to deny themselves for Me and see to My needs first."

"You have much to ponder in your own life, My Dove. There is much you have so totally forgotten, that I have kept as keepsakes, acts of love done for Me."

"If only My Bride knew the great joy I derive from the little things she has done for Me out of pure love and no other motive. Most in the world are motivated by what means the most to them: money, beauty, notoriety, acceptance, opportunity. These are the things that drive them. But then there is My Bride, she is motivated by what she can do to please Me."

Clair speaks: "Oh Lord, I fall so far short!"

"You are learning. My Bride is so insecure about the Rapture because she equates Me with men, yet I am not like any man she has ever met. I am not a vicious prosecuting attorney, rather I am a Lover counting My rose petals, watching the mailbox for more being sent to Me. Every day I anticipate the sweet fragrance of her love translated into action, acts of love, showered randomly on those she comes in contact with. I watch to see her heart, so much like Mine, wanting to bless and relieve burdens, yet honest and true with those who need correction."

"My Bride, if you have separated yourself from wilful sin and are careful each day to love those I send you, you need not worry about being taken to Heaven with Me. I am looking forward to that day we celebrate our love with such great longing."

"Are you forgiving injuries and doing good to those who hurt you? Remember how excruciating was My pain on the Cross? Yes, well even in that state, I was looking towards the welfare of the very men who crucified Me, "Father forgive them, they know not what they do."

"And when the crowd gathered around the harlot caught in adultery, I did not join in condemning her, rather I lifted her up to her feet with the admonition to go and sin no more. When the Pharisees took the last penny from the widow, I did not compliment the rich for their elaborate gifts. No, I exalted the little one that gave all she had while others gave from their excess."

"And when the disciples fought over who was greatest among them, I was quick to point out that it is the least, the servant who indeed has primacy. Why? Because this one serves the needs not of himself but of others, consistently, day in and day out. While the rich young ruler is preoccupied in increasing his worldly wealth and position, the servant is eager only to see others increase."

"Have you been living this way My Brides? If you have, then you need not fear being left behind. I cannot wait for that first dance at Our wedding reception. If you have lived the beatitudes, you need not be concerned about being left behind."

And that's the end of the message...

Christian Connect Lounge is a dedicated ministry to the Almighty for the service of His saints, the proclamation of the gospel of the Kingdom, and the preparation of the Bride of Christ for the glorious calling of our Lord. We believe that we, believers in Jesus, as representatives of the end-times Church of Christ, have upon our shoulders the task of completing the great commission of the Lord in the church-age while building resources available for the tribulation saints. We believe in the doctrine of our faith in Jesus as outlined in the Word of God, that one must be born-again from the Spirit and water to inherit the Kingdom of God. Our short-term goals are to establish online platforms and build capacity in electronic resources that can be shared online and downloaded freely, while enabling believers to fellowship with one another from the four corners of the world.
